PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NOMINATION PERIOD BEGINS JULY 14 for SANTA ROSA VALLEY MUNICIPAL ADVISORY COUNCIL ELECTION

Three Seats Open on Santa Rosa Valley MAC

VENTURA COUNTY, CA (June 26, 2008)- Ventura County Supervisor Linda Parks announces three seats on the Santa Rosa Valley Municipal Advisory Council will be up for election in November. The terms of current MAC members Rosemary Allison, Janis Gardner and Don Shubert will end and registered voters of Santa Rosa Valley are eligible to run.

The Santa Rosa Valley MAC meetings are held the third Thursday of the month at Rancho Santa Rosa Property Owners' Association Club House at 6:00 PM and deal with issues of concern to the Santa Rosa Valley Community as well as providing recommendations to the Board of Supervisors on land use and governmental issues.

There are no term limits for these seats and current Council members have the option to run for re-election.

Candidates interested in running for election to the Santa Rosa Valley MAC can pick up nomination packets beginning Monday, July 14 at the office of Supervisor Linda Parks at the Thousand Oaks Civic Arts Plaza, 2967 Thousand Oaks Blvd., or at the Ventura County Elections Division at 800 S. Victoria Blvd., Ventura.

The deadline for filing nomination papers is 5:00 P.M. on Friday, August 8 if all of the incumbents choose to run. If any of the incumbents do not choose to run, the deadline for filing will be extended through August 13. All nomination papers must be filed in person at the Elections Division at Ventura County Government Center.
